

SPECIAL NOTICE

Oy vey—that’s what we say when factors beyond our control signal that plans must change.

After much consideration, we have decided to postpone the Judy Levis Markhoff Boca Raton Jewish Film Festival (JLM BRJFF).

The JLM BRJFF is about people spending time together—kibbitzing, schmoozing, noshing, watching, and connecting—with familiar friends and making new ones. The power of a shared emotional experience is amplified when we laugh, cry, and/or reflect on Jewish and Israeli life, history, and culture together. Simply put, BRJFF is about community engagement powered by cinema. Following guidance from Public Health officials, with input from Levis JCC and Jewish community leadership, as well as growing concern for maintaining our collective health, we made the heartbreaking decision to postpone our Festival.

Sadly, this means that screenings at all of our three locations have been suspended, and our March 18th evening event in Zinman Hall will be rescheduled.

Since the coronavirus/Covid-19 situation is constantly changing and evolving, we can’t offer you any concrete information at this moment. We would like you to know that we are exploring options for alternative dates and we will keep you informed as plans become clear.

This is so disappointing – no doubt about it. The silver lining, however, is that the show will go on...just not now.

If you have already purchased tickets to the 2020 JLM BRJFF, we please consider converting your purchase to a charitable gift to our Festival. This gift will help enable us to continue providing quality, innovative programming. While we hope you chose to support our mishpucha with a gift, if you do not feel able do so, we ask for your patience as we work through exchanges and/or refunds.

Our beloved Festival will continue to grow and thrive – this unfortunate set of circumstances is nothing more than a temporary setback. We are looking ahead, and can’t wait to welcome you back.

Thank you for your patronage and support and for your understanding in this unusual circumstance.
